THE BELFIELD FAMILY

A RECORD OF THE DESCENDANTS OF
DR. JOSEPH BELFIELD
IMMIGRANT TO VIRGINIA ABOUT 1700

Compiled by John Lyman with the assistance of several members of the family.

Washington, D.C.

1960

Price $4.00

A1 JOSEPH BELFIELD. The founder of the Belfield family in America was a surgeon ("chirurgeon" in contemporary spelling), who settled in Richmond County, Va., at some date before 1703 as yet undetermined, and built Belle Mount overlooking Cat Point Creek. He is said to have had naval (or military) service, but no proof has ever been presented. Joseph Belfield is said to have been born on Jan. 17, 1685/6. His first wife was FRANCES WRIGHT, dau of Mottram Wright and Ruth Griggs, and g-dau of John Mottram Wright, a Burgess in 1645; they seem to have had only one child:

B1 THOMAS WRIGHT BELFIELD, b Jan. 1, 1704/5. He succeeded his father as Sheriff of Richmond Co. in July 1732, his sureties being Sam. Feather and Richard Barnes. He married MARY BATHURST, d of Francis MERIWETHER and wid of William COLSTON; 8 children. (He died in Dec. 1743 in Richmond Co. (will m Dec. 10, pr Feb. 6, 1743/4). MERIWETHER (HER MOTHER WAS MARY BATHURST)

JOSEPH BELFIELD md 2d MARY WILSON, a widow. They made a pre-marriage indenture on April 20, 1707, concerning their property and Mary's son John Wilson. A deed made July 20, 1715 granted land from Joseph Belfield and wife Mary to Thomas Montjoy, eldest son of Mary, showing that she was twice a widow, and mentioned her father's name as William Land. On Nov. 3, 1725, Joseph Belfield granted a Negro boy and girl to his new grandson John Belfield. On July 6, 1726, and again on Aug. 2, 1727, Joseph Belfield gave bond for £1000 sterling to the King on his appointment as Sheriff of Richmond County, John Tayloe and William Fauntleroy cosigning on both occasions. Joseph Belfield's will, made July 16, 1736, mentions wife ELIZABETH (doubtless 3d wife), son Thomas Wright Belfield (left "20 shillings and no more," probably having been provided for during his father's lifetime) and son JOSEPH BELFIELD, who must have been a young son by Elizabeth. The family bible at Woodville gives the date of death of Dr. Joseph Belfield as Oct. 6, 1737.

B2 JOSEPH BELFIELD. According to the family bible at Woodville, he took up lands in Orange County, and had three daughters:

C1 Mrs. CAVE
C2 Mrs. MALLORY
C3 Mrs. SMITH.
